1	Planning & Zoning Commission	08/29/2022	recommended for denial	City Council
	Action Text: Josh Mahoney, Attorney representing the applicant, Battle Law P.C Tucker GA, presented with the aid of a Powerpoint presentation, and addressed questions from the commission. Jim Jacobi, developer and owner of parkland communities, presented and addressed questions on detention pond, etc. Public Comments: Jonathan Benator, Attorney representing Carrington Park HOA, presented his opposition to the rezoning. He stated that the HOA is agreeable to some aspects of the development and the revised site plan: front entry units, on street parking and rental restrictions. He opposes to access from carrington park drive and would prefer the secure access from CH Jmaes Pkwy. He proposed a stipulation for minimum unit size of 1600 sf. he want to remove units 1-3. wants the proposed development to offer nicer amenities to eliminate encroachment into their amenities. The HOA wants a separate monument sign to distinguish the communities. Yvonne Leon, 3340 Carrington Park Drive. Opposed. She commented that the last builder left them "high and dry" and that the development is not a good fit. Gregory Mylon. 5155 Carrington Park Drive. Opposed. says it will degrade quality of life. MOTION. Jim Taylor made a motion to DENY, seconded by Roy Wade. The commission voted 5:1 to DENY.
1	City Council	09/19/2022	tabled	City Council	11/21/2022	Pass
	Action Text: A motion was made by Council Member - At Large Post Wisdom, seconded by Council Member - Ward 3 Green, that Rezoning PZ 22--022 be tabled to the City Council, on 11/21/2022. The motion carried by the following vote: Notes: Michelle Battle, Attorney on behalf of property owner OTH 12 LLC, discussed the owner's lack of viability of commercial development and presented renderings of the proposed rezoning from commercial to 48 detached single-family homes and 94 single-family attached town homes. Jonathon Banader, 1510 Ellsworth Industrial Boulevard in Atlanta, spoke in opposition on behalf of the current Carrington Association property owners. Mr. Banader outlined that the property should remain a commercial component, if a separate HOA is allowed it would create conflicts between the two communities, and

the applicant has not exhausted the possibility of getting a curb cut along C.H. James Parkway so the development does not need to utilize the main road into the Carrington subdivision.

Chandra Harris, 3309 Thornbridge Drive, spoke in opposition citing parking concerns, traffic, dense areas and a decrease in quality of life.

Twillikki Davis-Young, 5188 Carrington Park Drive, discussed her opposition about preserving privacy, character and livability in the community.

Yvonne Leon, 3340 Thornbridge Drive, expressed her opposition stating the current community is already established, densely populated and has narrow streets.

Mayor and Council commented on incorporating the applicants community with existing community; asked to address the entrance sign for the new development; and suggested buying into the current HOA. Jim Jacoby, owner of Parkland Community, shared that they have made attempts to work with the Carrington community during online meeting, offering to blend the HOA with their current HOA; they are willing to use their own separate entrance monument; there was an offer to collect an initiation fee on every unit and the fees will go back to the HOA
