Mission:

Our Mission is to educate and celebrate with our community the historical event of June 19, 1896:
Juneteenth 1865: from Slavery to Freedom

Vision:

Our vision is to equip and empower members of the local community to embrace our Juneteenth 1865 independence from slavery and to celebrate it through education and community events

Three Rounds, LLC would like to present to the City of Powder Springs, in it's own words: "a unique event to the city that will set it apart from the other city festivals in Cobb County" We present an Inaugural Juneteenth Celebration on June 20, 2020 with a Family Day of Celebration and Unity Walk in Downtown Powder Springs, unlike others

We want to celebrate the last day the enslaved African were finally freed on the historic day known as Juneteenth 1865 in Galveston Texas. An Independence Day: Slavery to Freedom.

Our organization's goal for this event is to bring awareness to the community and to celebrate history, celebrate diversity and celebrate unity in great town of Powder Springs with family, food and fun.

It begins with a grand opening ceremony at the newly built Amphitheater Main Stage and throughout the event have unity choirs, dance teams, essay winners, musical entertainment and more!

There will be an Historical Corner: Informational and Visual to present the history and meaning of Juneteenth, historical foods and health presentations.

Kid's Corner: Story teller, Interactive activities bouncy houses, face painting kids, games for youth.

Food Vendors with various cuisines and vegan/vegetarian, Bar-b-que and sides, hamburger, hot dogs, nachos, cotton candy, popcorn, Italian ice, and more!

Our highlight will be a 1 mile Unity Walk, with Beautiful Closing Ceremony Memorial Lantern Release.

This event is an event that is to be a memorable event that will be for all to enjoy.

Our Event will be an Inaugural Juneteenth Celebration on June 20, 2020 with a Family Day of Celebration and Unity Walk in Downtown Powder Springs.

It will bring an awareness to those who participate and those who attend the event. It is an event that is inclusive of all residents and guest of Powder Springs who believes in Freedom and Equality.
