Briefly describe your work/volunteer experience: I currently work in the insurance industry in the compliance and policy analysis role. I volunteer my time teaching small businesses policy formation, I volunteer at church as a youth leader, business expert, and I also volunteer my time with missions & food pantry.

What do you consider to be your greatest strengths that you would bring to a board or commission? My greatest strength is effective communication, listening, and being an advocate. I have the ability to be innovative and think outside the box allowing me to solve complex issues and bring them to a close or resolve. I am committed, diligent, have a heart for people and change all great traits and needed in this season.

Why do you want to serve on a board or commission? I desire to serve and diversify change. I want to be involved in my community that I call home and I believe in the arts and culture to advance the youth and adults. I also desire to lead and be a voice for the people and be an aid for sound decisions that need to be made. I want to use my gifts and talents to make a change and bring a fresh perspective and new insight.
