

Chapter 4 ANIMALS ~~AND FOWL~~¹

Sec. 4-1. Animal control provisions adopted.

~~Cobb County's Animal Control Ordinance, as may be amended by the county from time to time, is hereby adopted [as the controlling ordinance for Powder Springs].~~

~~{Ord. No. 2006-16, 8-21-2006}~~

The City of Powder Springs hereby adopts the Animal Control Ordinance of Cobb County, being Chapter 10 of the Official Code of Cobb County, Georgia, as amended, as an ordinance of the City as if set forth herein in its entirety. Such ordinance shall be applicable and enforceable within the city limits of the City. The governing authority of the City shall contract through an intergovernmental agreement with the county for animal control within the city. This shall include enforcement of the Animal Control Ordinance of Cobb County within the city, and the Dangerous Dog Control Law as set forth in O.C.G.A. §§ 4-8-20 through 4-8-30. Any person who violates any provision of this chapter shall be punished as allowed by law. A violation requiring a citation shall be cited in accordance with the County's adopted numbering structure. Such citations shall be adjudicated in Cobb County Magistrate Court as allowed in state law. City waives the requirements of O.C.G.A. 15-10-153.

¹Editor's note(s)—Ord. No. 2006-16, adopted Aug. 21, 2006, repealed in its entirety Ch. 4, which derived from Ord. No. 2004-33, adopted Nov. 15, 2004.
