

Urban Redevelopment Area (Generally Consistent with LCI Boundaries)

Urban redevelopment area within the City of Powder Springs follows generally the LCI study area boundaries approved in 2016, amended as depicted above, which are bounded on the north by Richard D. Sailors Parkway, on the west by Old Lost Mountain Road, Powder Springs Park and parcels that front the western side of Lewis Road, on the east by by properties generally located on the north south axis close to Jackson Way Extension and Butner Street, the railroad and the properties fronting the east side of Lewis Road, and on the south by US278/CH James Parkway, Lewis Road and Oglesby Road.